> Untimely Death of John M. Russell. John M. Russell, only child of Amos C. and Ella McGowen Russell, of Austintown township, died last Friday night in the Youngstown City hospital. He suffered an attack of appendicitis only a week before and was taken to the hospital Sunday for an operation, following which peritonitis developed, causing death. Deceased was born Dec. 4, 1891, on the farm where his entire life was spent. He was a most industrious young man and possessed great ability in mechanical matters. All his life he was an attendant at the Canfield Presbyterian church and he was held in high esteem by all who knew him. His untimely death was a sad blow to his parents and a wide circle of friends. Funeral services held from the family home Tuesday afternoon were conducted by Rev. W. C. Press of Youngstown and were largely attended. Interment was made in the Canfield cemetery.
